Rabbi's Message -Marc Ekstrand

Friends,

We are in the midst of an extremely important election season...no, not what you are thinking...keep reading. The World Zionist Congress (WZC) elections are going on NOW. You can vote. Voting will be open until March 11 (Shushan Purim). The Reform movement did extremely well in the last elections in 2015. This accomplished a great deal for the growth of Reform Judaism in Israel. It ensured $20 million dollars over five years went to support our movement. By comparison, the Israeli government annually provides nearly 4 billion NIS ($1.1 billion) to Orthodox and Haredi institutions in Israel. With this critical support, liberal Judaism in Israel has grown incredibly. Over the past five years the number of Reform communities has grown from 23 to 52. There are well over 100 Israeli Reform rabbis ordained from HUC-JIR in Jerusalem. Reform Jews now sit at the table for important decision making at the Jewish Agency and KKL-JNF. Because of our presence and strength, our Reform leaders are able to insist on pluralism in Israel. That means justice and fairness with regards to marriage, conversion and burial regulations, funding for our religious institutions, and appointments to important national offices. It also means that when secular Jews learn about Judaism in school, or when they are entering the Army, they now hear from Reform educators and rabbis as well as the Orthodox. Because of our presence and strength, we are building important bridges between Reform leaders and other stakeholders, even including the ultra-Orthodox. This is not about forcing our will on others, it is about guaranteeing our seat at the table when important agreements are negotiated, major issues are debated, and decisions are made. This is pluralism. An Israel that reflects our values of democracy and pluralism depends upon our vote. WE NEED YOUR VOTE! Vote Reform!

There is a downside to our success. Because we did so well in the 2015 elections, there are many organizations that are creating and working strategies to squeeze the Reform movement out of the 2020 WZC. Thus, we must not only equal our voting in the last election, we must surpass it. Looking at voter turnout from the last election, it seems that there were approximately 10 votes cast from our congregation. With our membership of approximately 300 adult individuals, we can easily surpass that number. Sixty votes should be easy. We must have a strong election turn out. David Stein is our WZC Election Captain. David and I will be communicating with you many times until voting ends.

Here is what you need to know about voting. Please note that there is a processing fee involved in registering to vote, $7.50 for individuals older than 25, and $5 for those aged 18-25. This is a fee imposed by the World Zionist Congress, not ARZA (Association of Reform Zionists of America) or Temple Emanu-El. It only pays the costs of operating the election, safeguarding the security of the election website and process, and other administrative requirements. It can be paid via credit card, PayPal, or other payments available on the voter registration website. This is a fee that Temple Emanu-El is not allowed to pay on behalf of congregants, but we hope you will agree that it is a small price to pay to make the Reform voice heard and to have an impact in what happens in Israel.

Any Jewish person over the age of 18 is eligible to vote.

Voters in the WZC elections must:

- Be 18 years of age or older (by June 30, 2020)
- Self-identify as Jewish
- Agree to the Jerusalem Program, the official platform of the WZO and the Zionist Movement
- Agree to pay the processing fee.

Go now to azm.org/elections to vote if you have not already. Send me a message at marcekstrand@gmail.com to let me know you voted. Post it on social media. Then ask your friends to VOTE REFORM as well.

L'shalom,

Rabbi Marc

President's Message - Jonathan Rowe

Dear Friends.

I took on the role of Temple President during difficult personal times. There was great political upheaval at my job, my mother-in-law was becoming increasingly ill and Armi and I moved her in with us out of necessity, my mother on Long Island was having health issues and several other on-goings in my life were challenging. To be candid, being President doesn't reduce stress. All past presidents can confirm that. We do it out of devotion. There is a lot that must be managed.

This past fall, my department at work was eliminated. I am not nearly the first person from our temple who worked in the pharmaceutical industry to be impacted in this way. Most have moved away because that's where the jobs are. Being that I'm still at a point in my life where a regular income is needed, I began my search for a new job.

I landed a new career opportunity with a company based in New York City. This requires me to be away at least three days per work week. With the responsibilities of the new job and the remote location from Waterford, I didn't know if I would be able to sustain the tasks of President. I discussed this with the Board. I thought we could try video conferencing for Board meetings as a solution, and was willing to give it a try. However, there are many day-to-day things that need to be accounted for as well.

In early January I had a serious health crisis. It was beyond a wakeup call. It was my body ordering me to stop trying to juggle multiple responsibilities. I wish I could say, "Hey, I'll just stop working!" That is unrealistic. Therefore it was imperative that I step down from another responsibility. I will no longer be able to carry out the duties of Temple President.

I and the temple are blessed to have a backup in my life. Jo-el Fernandez does not intend to support my family financially; however, she is fully prepared to become the President of Temple Emanu-El. I convinced her to be VP after my first presidency, and I had to have her as my VP because she's a brilliant, honest, compassionate and strategic leader. We are lucky to have her. I look forward to working with her on transitioning the role.

Please welcome Jo-el with the same vigor that you have embraced me with over the years.

Thank you.

Jonathan

Notes from Sherry Barnes

This month we celebrate Shabbat Shira, the Song of the Sea. The song that is alluded to is from Parashat Be'shallach, Exodus 15: 1-21, in which G*d parts the Sea of Reeds to allow the Israelites to cross and find safety from their pursuers, the Egyptians. This Torah portion tells the details of that day and how G*d saved us. It is a song that praises

G*d for defeating the Egyptians. Yet, there is a midrash that softens the harshness of joy at the expense of another's death. It goes something like this; G*d hears his children singing and rejoicing and asked them, "What do see happening?", to which the Israelites reply, "We see our enemy drowning in the sea!" G*d replies, "I see my children dying." I have also heard it told as the angels being so filled with joy at the Israelites being saved, that they begin to sing and G*d says, my children are dying, and you sing?! No matter which way the midrash is told, it reminds us that even in the joy of victory, we need to remember that there is sorrow for those who were not. Maybe remembering will keep us humble.

Exodus 15:11 says: Who is like you among the gods that are worshipped. Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in splendor, working wonders? Every evening and morning service, we sing the words from Mi Chamocha, so we always remember our going out from Egypt, from bondage to freedom.

In the Torah, this particular parasha is scribed differently than some of the others. It is supposed to look like the Israelites crossing through the Reed Sea. Another interesting thing which happens in this reading, which I know I say every year, is that the traditional trope is intertwined with that of a special melody wherever G*d's name is mentioned. So remember to listen for it, on February 7.

Thank you to our choir and Michael McCarthy for singing/accompanying on Shabbat Shira!

Enjoy these links to some of my favorite composers, that you may not have heard yet, singing Mi Chamocha! Dan Nichols, Elana Arian, and Nefesh Mountain.

Religious School 860-439-0406 | religiousschool@tewaterford.org

It's hard to believe that we've already reached the halfway mark for this school year! We are enthusiastically diving into the second half of the year with lots of new things to learn and holidays to celebrate together.

month we also bid a fond farewell to our Young Emissaries, Tal and Roi, as they return to Israel for a few weeks to be with their families and friends. Please wish Tal and Roi safe travels if you see them around school. We will miss them both and can't wait for them to return in March!

Although spring is getting close, we're not there yet!

Please remember that we will typically follow the inclement weather snow/ice closing schedule of the Waterford school district on Wednesdays. We will notify parents by 12:00 through a Remind app text regarding any exceptions. We would only keep school open if road conditions are deemed safe by school time. For Sunday closures, we will do our best to make a decision Saturday night and will notify parents via the Remind app and email.

All the best,

Armi and Jennifer

One of our goals at Religious School is to create a strong sense of Jewish community for all of our students. To that end, we spent some time last month with our older grades discussing the value of acceptance and how our students can address anti-Semitism if they encounter it. Rabbi Marc, Rabbi Polly, and Barbara Senges-Murphy also ran a discussion group for parents about ways to talk to our children about anti-Semitism. We encourage you to have those conversations at home, as well, so that all of our children are strengthened and supported in their interactions in the wider world.

This month, we hope you will join us at our First Friday-Shabbat on February 7. Our 5th grade class will be helping Rabbi Marc and Hazzan Sherry in leading the service. This tional dates for 2019-2020: March 8 and 22, April 5 and 26, May 3 and 17. If you are interested in signing your child up for class, please contact the office at 860-443-3005.

Shabbat Mornings - Prayer, Practice and Prophets

8:30 A.M. Pot Luck Breakfast 9:00 A.M. Service

Shabbat morning services will be on the first and third Shabbat of each month (February 1 and 15). Our mornings will begin with a pot luck breakfast at 8:30. Our service will begin at 9:00. It will not be a full service. Rather, we will pick one part of the service each week and explore the fixed prayers through song, chants, niggun, and poetry. We will also study aspects of traditional service choreography, and traditional and modern interpretations of prayer. Following prayer and practice, we will study the Prophets. The prophetic voice has been central to Reform Judaism. Their voice is timeless. In the turbulent times we live in, it will do all of us well to raise the volume of their call. We aim to complete our Shabbat morning program around 10 A.M.

Adult Education

Adult Study Group

The Sunday morning discussion group starts at 11:00 A.M. in the Temple sanctuary. This is open to everyone. If you have any questions, you may contact Edee Smith at ejsmith1969@gmail.com

The Sacred Path of Reform Judaism with Rabbi Ekstrand

A five part course exploring the central aspects of Reform Judaism. Reform Judaism has continuously confronted the challenges of modernity. The movement in America is over 200 years old. This year we will explore together our Reform heritage in five sessions: Reform History; Mitzvot and Ethics; Justice; Spirituality; and Ongoing Revelation. A companion book to this course is suggested for purchase: A Life of Meaning: Embracing Reform Judaism's Sacred Path, edited by Rabbi Dana Evan Kaplan, PhD, was published in 2018 by the CCAR Press.

All meetings are at 7 P.M. at Temple Emanu-El. Remaining Course Dates: Tuesday, February 11; Tuesday, March 10

Judaism and the Interfaith Family Experience with Rabbi Ekstrand

Being in an interfaith family or relationship is common in Reform communities. Being in such a family has blessings and challenges. I know this first hand. My father was not Jewish for most of my childhood and my mother grew up Orthodox. Let's get together and share our experiences and explore how our interfaith family can help us meet the challenges of an increasingly complicated world.

All meetings area at 7 P.M. at Temple Emanu-El Remaining Group Meeting Dates:

Wednesday, March 4 / Wednesday, May 6 / Wednesday, June 3

Religious Practices

February is a time of looking forward to a quick end of winter and the arrival of spring. Appropriately, on February 10, the Jewish calendar notes Tu B'Shevat – a celebration of trees. Over the history of Judaism this holiday has meant many things – a time to consider the divine and nature, a time to consider ourselves and nature, a time to focus on environmental awareness. On Friday, February 7, we'll be observing this holiday.

Stay tuned for more information about our plans for Purim which starts March 9!

Our committee is looking for Haggadahs for review. The ones we have for our congregational Passover seder are showing their age. Please give us your suggestions for versions to replace ours. If you would like to help us review new versions or pass on information about a favorite version, please contact: Jo Michaelson (jhmmah@aol.com) or Roberta at the Temple office, office@tewaterford.org, 860-443-3005.

Social Action

Social Action

Social Action is important to all of us both inside and outside the Temple Community.

In the last few weeks there have been discussions with the Rabbi about how to get more involvement in social action. We not only have a need for more people, but we have an even more pressing need for new involvement to be younger involvement. Those of us, who have been involved in social action for decades, while continuing to be very valuable, need to pass along the value of social action to our children and our children's children... from generation to generation...

All that being said our core projects remain successful and productive:

New London Community Meals Center

The amazing thing about our many years of working with the Soup Kitchen is that we never miss a beat. I cannot recall a single month in the past decade and more where there were not enough volunteers from the Temple. Every third Tuesday we prepare and provide a meal from soup to nuts and more. Our specialty is a spaghetti dinner and our volunteers have made it into almost an art form. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Hali Keeler.

Habitat for Humanity

It is hard to believe that the Temple has been working with Habitat with our monthly, Sunday, Builds since the 20th Century. We now also build in conjunction with Beth El. Recently; the students at Connecticut College's Hillel have indicated an interest in joining us too. Even though our January Build was in the dead of winter (it was 71 degrees) we had many volunteers and we continued work on the Golden Street home in Norwich. We started there when it was just a foundation, and now the home is in its final stages. Our next Build is again on Golden Street on February 2. If you are interested in joining us, try not to let furry creatures see their shadow and contact Marty Zeldis.

Start Fresh

After a long hiatus, Start Fresh will be welcoming into New London a new refugee family from Sudan. They will be arriving in early February and will have many initial needs to help get them into their new home and accustomed to this area. If interested in helping, please contact Karen Bloustine

Homelessness in this area

Over the last several weeks there have been small groups of social action members who have been trying to become focused on the problem of homelessness in this area. At our last committee meeting in January, we were joined by two people, Hayward and Adam, who are part of the New London Mutual Aid Collective. The Collective tries to assist with blankets, coats etc. for homeless people who choose not to use the facilities of the area Homeless Shelter, and instead find shelter in this area's "Tent Cities." More recently the Rabbi, Judy Mann and Marty Zeldis met with Cathy Zall, director of New London's Homeless Hospitality Center, to determine how we can most effectively help those who have little or no shelter. While we cannot expect to eradicate homelessness in our midst, we can be one small positive step in that direction. If you are interested in becoming involved, Judy Mann is the person to contact.

If you have an interest in trying to help in all types of social problems be they local or international, please consider joining the Social Action Committee. Our next meeting will be in February on a date still to be determined.

IT'S TIME TO ORDER YOUR PURIM GIFT BAGS!

SEND A BEAUTIFUL GIFT BAG TO YOUR TEMPLE FAMILY

Did you know the mitzvah of giving mishloach manot (Purim gift bags) is a tradition intended to increase love and friendship among Jews and their neighbors?

Each Purim gift bag costs $5.00 and contains homemade Hamantaschen and Israeli candy. Families will receive one gift bag, hand delivered, with the names of those who sponsored the gift in their package. Better yet, for $180.00 consider sending a Purim gift bag to the entire temple congregation.

BEST WAY TO ORDER

Fill out the attached form and submit it to the temple office with a check. Ordering this way will help avoid the 2% fee we incur with Happy Purim.

If ordering online with Happy Purim is more convenient, that is fine too. We need your support no matter which method you choose.

This is a fundraiser and we need your help for it to be successful.

HOW TO ORDER ONLINE: go to www.HappyPurim.com

You will receive a personalized code via e-mail. Alternatively, you may call the temple office for your code.

Choose the names of the temple members to whom you would like to send a gift bag. Pay by credit card. Your e-mail address/personal information will not be shared with any other entity.

QUESTIONS? Contact Deborah Linder deborahlinder29@yahoo.com or call 860-877-4255
