

Rabbi's Message - Marc Ekstrand

Friends,

When you receive this bulletin, the lights of Chanukah will be shining brightly in windows all across Eastern Connecticut – from the Shore to Willimantic and from Old Saybrook to Rhode Island. For the second year, Temple Emanu-El will participate in a community program each night of Chanukah. We will host the last night's celebration, Sunday, December 5th, at 6 PM. Weather permitting, we'll have music (thanks band members and Sherry!), donuts, cider, and hot chocolate, the Travel Raffle drawing. Most importantly, we will be sending our light of hope, love, righteousness, and justice out into a world that desperately needs it.

To help us send out light, we will be unveiling a historic Chanukiah. We will officially unveil a seven-foot-tall bronze Chanukiah that we inherited from Temple B'nai Abraham in Meriden. The Temple closed some years ago, and the Chanukiah has been in storage since. B'nai Abraham dedicated the Chanukiah to Larry Roden, a beloved youth of that community who died of Leukemia in 1961. Ms. Ellie Roden, his sister, will be writing a statement that I will read at this community unveiling. Special thanks to Sean Bendick for his repair and electric upgrade of the Chanukiah. Thanks also to Michael Price, Congregation Beth Shalom Rodfe Zedek, and the URJ Board of Trustees who facilitated Temple Emanu-El becoming its new home. The Chanukiah is a beautiful and meaningful addition to our sacred space. Ms. Roden has expressed how grateful she is for our stewardship of her brother's legacy.

Slowly but surely, Temple Emanu-El is ramping up in-person activities. It was a primary objective to bring the Religious School back in person this year. Thanks to the hard work of Rachel O'Brien, Amy Orce, all of the teachers, and the Religious School Committee, the kids are back! Whether it is hybrid services, Sisterhood events, other programs, we are coming back in person. It is so lovely to see everyone in person, even if we must wear masks indoors.

Surprisingly, just a handful of people are joining us for in-person services, classes, and programs outside the Religious School. It seems that it's a bit more complicated to come back than we thought. Let us know what we can do to make you feel more comfortable, to help you reenter the building.

L'Shalom,

Rabbi Marc

President's Message - Andy Parad

Possibly by the time the bulletin is mailed out fall weather will have finally arrived. I don't so much mind seeing the leaves still on the trees, but if Thanksgiving and Chanukah come around and I'm still doing yard work in shorts then something is wrong with that. Hopefully everyone is still taking advantage of the unseasonably warm temperatures.

Despite the good weather, I heard last night about a COVID "5th wave" coming through the country. So everyone knows there is a lot of sharing of information going on in the background and our Re-entry Committee chair, Jo-el Fernandez, is in constant contact with congregations in the area. We can firmly say that what we are currently doing is in line with 90+% of the congregations in our region.

If anyone missed the first Friday Share Shabbat, I would highly recommend it. The kids had fun with the creative service and were on the edge of their seats in anticipation of what the puzzle was. I believe you can catch replays on Youtube, so I won't put in any spoilers here.

I'll be looking forward to seeing many of you at the candle lighting on the December 5. Good luck to those of you participating in the raffle!

Andy

Notes from Sherry Barnes

I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving and beginning of Chanukkah. It's so special to be with family and friends during the holidays. We love those we are with and remember and miss those that aren't with us. They are always in our hearts.

Growing up and sharing Chanukkah with my parents and my brother always has special memories. My mom made the most delicious latkes that were hand grated. Ouch! I prefer to use the food processor. It's easier on my fingers. When I had kids of my own, I loved playing dreidel with them for Starburst candies. They usually beat me. Now, they play dreidel with their kids. Chanukkah is when I chose to have Rabbi Marc and Rabbi Rosenberg bless my newly purchased home and hang up mezuzot on my front and back doors. I loved having family and friends there to help me celebrate this very meaningful time in my life. I'm sure all of you have warm memories attached to the beautiful lights of the chanukiah in the window, that amazing smell of freshly fried latkes, and being with loved ones. Definitely blessings in our lives to cherish.

Friday, December 3, will be our Share Shabbat/Chanukkah service. Our Religious School students will be participating in the service through prayer and song. We will be lighting our chanukkiyot around the sanctuary like we have done in the past and singing to the music of the TE Band. I hope you will join us and don't forget your chanukiah.

On Sunday, December 5, at 6:00 p.m., here at Temple Emanu-El, we will be hosting the community celebration for the last night of Chanukkah outside in our parking lot. We will have members from the TE Band playing and members of the TE choir helping us sing Chanukkah songs. There will be donuts to eat and hot cider and hot chocolate to keep you warm. We are also going to pull the winning ticket for the TE Raffle and lighting our bronze chanukiah. So, dress warm, come see friends, sing, and enjoy the last night of Chanukkah with us.

Havdalah In January and February, we will bring back our Havdallah programing. Keep an eye open for more information.

Choir If our Covid numbers stay low, the choir will sing for our January 14, 2022, in person.

Cabaret is February 5, 2022. I hope you're thinking of what you are going to do! Sing, dance, tell jokes, play an instrument, or read poetry you've written. The evening is always fun and we need some fun!

Thank you to our band members for playing at services on Dec. 3, and for the last day of Chanukkah on Dec. 5. It is always so nice that you are there making this extra special.

Thank you to our choir members who were able to come out and sing for the last day of Chanukkah. Lighting up the night with your voices.

Sherry

Music and Musings

Thursdays at 1:30 PM beginning on December 9th.

Join Rabbi Marc and Sherry – We will bring just a little music, some thoughts from Jewish tradition, and then open discussion. The music and topics will change from week to week. We'll have musical guests from time to time. We invite you to share a composition or teaching of your own or suggest a guest. The topics of discussion are up to you. This is an in person gathering.

Sisterhood -- Gail Weber & Barbara Senges, Co-Presidents

Hi Ladies,

While November turned out to be a very busy month with an abundance of Sisterhood programs, December is a little quieter. We know everyone will be very busy with family and friends, so our planned programs are fewer.

We are having our popular Trivia Event on Wednesday, December 15 at 7:00pm. This will be a hybrid model. If you feel comfortable and are vaccinated, please join us at the temple, wear your mask and stay socially distanced. Otherwise, see you on Zoom! This is always a fun time with lots of laughs and a chance to catch up with our friends.

You can get a head start and begin reading our next book for Book

Club. This will take place on Sunday, January 9 at 2:00pm. This month's book is a non-fiction book called "Caste - The Origin of Our Discontents" by Isabel Wilkerson. Cecile Feldman will be leading the discussion all the way from Europe! She is quite the dedicated Sisterhood leader. Looking forward to another lively discussion!

Sisterhood started a Walking Group at Niantic Boardwalk a few months ago. It has now expanded to two mornings a week – Wednesdays at 10:00am and Thursdays at 11:00 am. We will continue meeting outside until the snow arrives. After that, we are considering meeting at the Crystal Mall. Check your emails for updated information.

As always, we look to all of you for programming suggestions. Please don't hesitate to contact us with your ideas.

That's all for now. Looking ahead to an exciting 2022!

Gail Weber & Barbara Senges

Temple Emanu-El Religious School (TERS) - Rachel Obrien

We were thrilled to see so many of our religious school families come together on November 5 as we held our initial in-person First Friday Family "Share Shabbat". It was a meaningful time for our students and their families to gather in person and virtually for a new and exciting Shabbat service. Madison Goldstein from Kitah Chet helped Rabbi Marc lead the service followed by her Bat Mitzvah the following morning. Mazel Tov to Madison and Goldstein family!

We hope to see you all again at our next First Friday Family Share Shabbat on December 3 beginning at 7:00 P.M. Please bring your families Chanukiah and candles to light during Share Shabbat.

For those who may not be aware, Share Shabbat is held the first Friday of each month. Students and their families will have the opportunity to pick a part of the service on November 21 after religious school. Share Shabbat is an opportunity for all our students and their families to share in the Shabbat service. What makes this service engaging and interactive is that as each part of the service corresponds to a piece of a puzzle. When each puzzle piece is put in its place a very special picture is revealed (see picture below). What picture will be revealed on December 3? You will have to join us to find out!

On November 21 the Sisterhood had their annual Chanukah Fair. TERS focus was on instilling in our students the joy and intrinsic rewards of giving and Tzedakah. Students discussed the many ways we show love and appreciation during this Chanukah season - with gift giving being only one of them. With that said, all our students had the opportunity to browse the fair, and our Kitah Chet students were there to assist the students in finding gifts for parents and/or siblings and make and wrap their purchases. The fair was an exciting time and a great way to kick off the holiday season. Of course, many students made off with a dreidel and of course a bag of chocolate gelt as well.

LOOKING AHEAD...

We will reconvene after Thanksgiving break on December 1, for mid-week virtual Hebrew instruction, and on December 5, for our Sunday classes. On December 5 we will be having an amazing and very special school wide Chanukah celebration. Thanks to the Ruth Brody Fund we were able to have Musical IQ present to our students Drum Tales: A DeLIGHTful Story of Hanukkah, "an inspiring tale of struggle and survival, the Holy temple and a jar of pure olive oil". The program incorporates drumming and musical accompaniment with storytelling and song. Each student will be given a percussive instrument that becomes their medium of transportation to far-away lands and exotic places. Parents are welcome to watch and experience a truly unique program. Drum Tales will be performed at 10am for Pre-school, Kitah Gan/Alef and Kitah Bet and at 11am for Kitah Dalet, Hay, Vav, Zayin and Chet.

Keeping with the mitzvah of Tzedakah TERS will also be participating in a Toys for Tots Collection Drive. We encourage our families to donate an unwrapped toy to help support those less fortunate during this holiday season. Please keep an eye out for the details in the proceeding weeks.

Religious School teachers will be on vacation for winter break this month so there are no classes on December 26, 29 and January 2. Mid-week Hebrew instruction returns to virtual class on Wednesday, January 5. Sunday classes resume on January 9 and pre-school resumes January 16.

Chag Chanukah Sameach,

Rachel

Social Action

Despite a recent spike in the rate of new COVID cases, there is a sense of optimism that hopefully can continue. Not wanting to speak for all of us, in the last month there are signs everywhere that "normal" is not too far away. More and more meetings and get togethers and social events are happening in person rather than on "zoom." That applies to such things as Temple Board meetings to local City Council meetings etc. The Social Action Committee meeting of November took in person at the Temple. As for some of our projects, the Temple's preparation and serving of a monthly meal at the New London Community Meals Center, has now returned in large part to their dining area, and with this return there is a sense that the "Soup Kitchen" has once again come alive in spirit as well as in fact. If you want to be part of our work at the Meals Center, please contact Temple member Hali Keeler. One more example--On Sunday, November 14, Habitat for Humanity, the Temple and Beth El were able to do the first Monthly Sunday Build in over a year and a half. The turnout of volunteers, especially from the Temple was very impressive. We were working both outside and inside at a new construction site in Norwich. Ed Goldberg is now our local supervisor, and plans are being made for our next Sunday Build--perhaps on December 12. A point, not to be overlooked, is that Social Action at the Temple needs to be infused with new members and new ideas and new enthusiasm. Social action works best when it is vibrant and creative and connected to the people who need. As we return to life broadly, Social Action recognizes the need to encourage Life locally and in the Temple Community. Starting right now we are returning to monthly meetings which can foster new ideas and new ways to be relevant for a multitude of Social Action issues. Please join us as we return to Action and Life and add your voice as Social Action at the Temple RETURNS. Please watch your weekly e-mail for the next social action meeting date.

Marty Zeldis

Our next Share Shabbat will be December 3rd at 7 PM.
All community families with children of religious school age are invited to participate in Share Shabbat. Bring your Chanukiah and candles to light during Share Shabbat.
